The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday June 22. to Saturday June 26. 1736.

Hanover, July 1, N. S.

ON the 27th past in the Evening, Count Kinski, the Emperour's Ambassadour Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary, arrived here from England; as did also the next Day M. de Loss, Envoy Extraordinary from Poland and Saxony, and have had their respective Audiences of his Majesty; as have likewise M. de Wulkenitz, Envoy from Hesse Cassel, and M. Demay, Secretary from the Elector Palatine.

Whitehall, June 25, 1736.

Whereas several anonymous Letters have been wrote to Mr. James Bodicoate, of Peckham, in the Parish of Camberwell, and County of Surry, and to Elizabeth Cock his Servant, threatening to destroy the said Bodicoate and Cock, and the House of the said Bodicoate, particularly one Letter, demanding the Sum of Twenty Guineas to be laid under the Corner of the Yew Hedge of the said Bodicoate, six Inches behind the Scraper coming in at the Fore-gate, by the 24th Day of April last, and in case of Refusal, threatening that the House, Person and Servant of the said Bodicoate should be destroyed, and all that he had, by the First of May: And whereas on the 30th Day of the said Month of April, the said Elizabeth Cock was assaulted, robbed and most barbarously abused in an Out-house of the Garden of the said Bodicoate, by three Men and one Woman, who, as it appeared, intended to rob the Dwelling-House of the said Bodicoate: Her Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Felonies, or either of them, is graciously pleased to promise His Majesty's Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. And as a farther Encouragement to any Person or Persons who shall discover such Offender or Offenders, Her Majesty is pleased to promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, to be paid upon the Conviction of each and every of them. HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

The Managers and Directors of the Lottery appointed by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, for building a Bridge cross the River Thames, from the New Palace Yard in the City of Westminster to the opposite Shore in the County of Surry, do hereby give Notice, that they have, pursuant to the Directions of the said Act, appointed the Payments of the Contributors to the Lottery, to be made into the Bank of England in the Proportions, and at the Times following, viz. Twenty Shillings on each Ticket to be paid at the Time of Subscribing, for which Purpose Books will be opened the 30th of this Instant June, and continue so to the 2d of August following, unless the Subscription be compleated before that Time; Forty Shillings more to be paid on each Ticket on or before the 10th of September next, and the remaining Forty Shillings on or before the 1st of November following.

London, March 24, 1735-6.

Whereas by an Act made and passed in Parliament, in the Eighth Year of the Reign of his Majesty King George the Second, for the Application of the Rents and Profits of the Estates forfeited by the Attainder of James late Earl of Derwentwater, and Charles Radcliffe, it is enacted amongst other Things, That the Commissioners or Governors of his Majesty's Royal Hospital at Greenwich are to give six Months previous Notice in the London Gazette, of the Time and Place, when and where such Estates are intended to be Lett. Notice is therefore hereby given, by us the Commissioners of the said Hospital, that on Wednesday the 29th of September next ensuing, and every Wednesday and Friday following, will be Lett on Lease for Twenty One Years, or on Tack Notes for one Year, at Salters Hall in London, any of the Lead Mines, or Veins of Lead Oar, within the Manor of Aldston-moor, in the County of Cumberland, or elsewhere, belonging to the said Estate, till the whole shall be Lett; and all Adventurers are desired to give in their Proposals in Writing, directed to William Corbett, Esq; at the Pay Office in Broad-street, London, or to Messr. Walton and Boag, at Ravensworth Castle near Durham, shewing what Vein or Mine, they, or each of them would take, whether on Lease or Tack Note, and at what Due or Share to the Hospital. Notice is also hereby given, that at the same Time and Place will be Lett upon Lease for Twenty One Years, all the Farms, Tythes, Collieries, and other Estates, of the late James Earl of Derwentwater, in the Counties of Northumberland, Cumberland, and Durham, as are now out of Lease; and all Persons willing to take any Part of the said Estates, are desired to give in their Proposals in Writing to the said Mr. Corbett, or Messieurs Walton and Boag; of whom Particulars may be had of all, or any Part of the said Estates as are now out of Lease.
